

Audrina Goes Crazy Over Justin, LC Rumour

In last night's episode of The Hills Audrina completely lost her mind, along with a best friend and boyfriend most likely.

Apparently one of Audrina's good friends, Dino, (whoever that is) let her know that her main man Justin Bobby, and her best friend LC, had hooked up. He went into details about the hook up and was "very sincere" about the rumour.

The brunette bimbo then called Justin, cursing him out and telling her she hated him, then wondered why he didn't return her calls for a week.

She also called Lauren to ask her to redeem herself about 20 times.

On top of this, she called all of their mutual friends to share the rumour, which was what made Lauren most upset - Heidi deja vu?

As you can imagine, neither Lauren nor Justin were too impressed with her reaction to this insane rumour and did not handle it lightly.

Two meetings between the girls turned into yelling matches, including my favourite line of the season from Lauren: "Justin is disgusting, I'd rather kill myself than hook up with him!"

And Justin told her flat out she was being insane and immature, and "there is something wrong there dude."

I don't really blame the girl for airing the rumour to the accused culprits, but she went way overboard blaming the pair for something they both denied repeatedly doing.

Now there's more in Audrina's life that doesn't look good besides her implants!
